PALMER DECLARES MAY DAY MURDER PLANS OF REDS WILL NOT SUCCEED

ETERNAL VIGILANCE OF FEDERAL AND POLICE OFFICERS EXPECTED TO FRUSTRATE RADICAL PLOTTINGS

MORE RED RAIDS MAY BE STAGED

WASHINGTON, April 30—Secret service agents of the Department of Justice today were in conference with city and state officials in all big cities making plans to cope with the May Day demonstration which the Reds are planning for tomorrow. Palmer who late yesterday announced the Reds had marked many public officials for assassination, was personally directing the government officials in their efforts to break up the alleged plots. The Reds, according to the department reports, will stir up strikes, riots and confusion. It will not succeed, Palmer predicted. Palmer for months has been receiving threatening letters daily.

The vote was Boyd 107,682 and Dougherty 107,375.

In the Presidential preference vote the result between Harding and Wood was: Harding 125,561 and Wood 109,258. WEDS CHARMING BIGLER GIRL

Miss Verva Knepp, of Bigler, and Mr. Harry I. Sieber, of Lancaster, Pa., were married at high noon yesterday, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Knepp, of Bigler. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ezra Sieber, of Lancaster, assisted by Rev. McCoy, pastor of the U. B. church at Bigler.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and was attired in a blue travelling suit, with hat to match, and carried a boquet of roses and sweet peas.

The bridesmaid was Miss Esther Knepp, of Clearfield, niece of the bride, and the groom was attended by Mr. Bernard S. Cowder, also of Clearfield.

The ceremony was witnessed by none but the close friends and immediate relatives of the contracting parties. A sumptous wedding dinner was served following the ceremony.

The groom has been located in Clearfield during the past year, having been in charge of the optical department of Howe's Jewelry Store. He has made a host of warm friends during his residence here. He has chosen for his bride one of Bigler's fairest and most highly accomplished young ladies—one who by reason of rare accomplishments and amiable disposition, is well qualified to adorn a model home.

The happy couple left on the evening Pennsylvania train for a tour of the eastern cities. After their honeymoon trip they will reside in Clearfield.

The out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mrs. Autthaus, Miss Hearst, Rev. and Mrs. Ezra Sieber, and Mrs. Fullpocket, all of Lancaster, Pa.

SOME RAIN! SOME SWEARING!

According to local weather observer H. P. Bridge, Sr., thus far during April there has been a total rainfall of six inches, which demonstrates that while we have had rain pretty generally all month, the volume was not really as great as one would think.

Our devil is authority for the statement that this self-same rainfall has been conducive to profanity sufficient to cover the earth with a salve at least two inches greater in depth than the measurments of the weather observer.

WOODLAND W. C. T. U. GIVES FINE ENTERTAINMENT

Woodland people enjoyed a real treat last evening, when the W. C. T. U. presented a playlet, in which all the participants acquitted themselves in excellent form. Another feature of the entertainment was the readings by Amy Livingstone, Salome Davis, and Mrs. V. G. Henderson. The Sunday School orchestra of the M. E. church provided fine music. The affair was held in the U. B. church, and netted over one hundred dollars.

S. F. R. COMMITTEE REPORTS ON KNOX PEACE RESOLUTIONS

WASHINGTON, April 29—The Senate Foreign Relations committee today ordered a favorable report of the Knox peace resolution.

BOLD ROBBERS ENTER BRICKYARD ROUDOIR AND ROB "GEE" HULL

There was some excitement in police circles last night about 10 o'clock when "Gee" Hull appeared at "central station" and infomed the force that a holdup man had entered his boudoir at the Clearfield Brick Company's plant and by force of arms and with malice aforethought, had divested the said "Gee" of the sum of $3.75, which "Gee" alleged he had safely anchored or tucked away in the deepest corner of his left-hand trousers pocket—the said trousers being upon his said person when the said abstraction or removal occurred therefrom.

The force commandeered Moe Robinson and his racer and were soon at the scene of the alleged holdup, but after searching the premises and inspecting the said boudoir from a safe distance, arrived at the conclusion there was a mistake somewhere.

"Gee" arrived later and when he described the robber, was advised by the officers to search the fellow out and if he had succeeded in finding $3.75 in the aforesaid jeans, to divide with him fifty-fifty, and they would both be $1.87½ ahead of the game.

Newspapermen around the capitol at Washington will tell you there is not a more serious-minded man in politics than Hiram Warren Johnson. Reporters in California are likely to add that Johnson has been in earnest from the day the then obscure lawyer opened his office for general practice in Sacramento.

The Johnson two-fisted attitude has always made those who came in contact with him either supporters or opponents. A man of the fighting type, he is usually compared with Roosevelt. Yet those who expect him to relate amusing anecdotes from his life are keenly disappointed. Although he has a keen sense of humor, he refrains from exhibiting the lighter side of life.

When he tells a joke only those who know him best and can catch the twinkle in his eye can tell he is not in earnest.

Johnson is always at work. That is, when he is not sitting behind third-base watching a ball game. Washington knows Johnson as the Senate's wildest fan. As soon as he leaves his office in the Senate Office Building, on warm days he usually heads for the Washington team's park, where, with coat and hat in his lap, he follows every play almost religiously.

In frame he is a giant. His appearance is that of a short, heavy man with a large, fwell-shaped head; a clear-cut jaw; clear, blue eyes, and a straight mouth. When talking he emphasizes his remarks by gestures of his two big, clinched fists.

Johnson, who has been conducting his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination by appealing direct to the people in preferential primary states, is 53 years old. He was born in Sacramento, Cal., where later he and a brother opened a law office. His youth was spent in the California capital. He attended the University of California but was never graduated. In 1886 he was married to Miss Minnie L. McNeal of Sacramento.

Admitted to the bar in 1887, Johnson was known as a fair lawyer, but not one whose business occupied all his time. Even after he moved to San Francisco in 1902, he still was an obscure attorney. It took the famous "boodling" cases—in which Abe Ruef and other city officials were charged with graft resulting from the rebuilding of San Francisco following the earthquake and fire of 1906—to bring Johnson to public notice.

Associated with Francis J. Heney and William J. Burns in prosecuting Ruef, he at first took a minor part in

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS ELECTS OFFICERS

The Men's Bible Class of the West Side Methodist Sunday School held an interesting meeting in the West Side church last evening. The principal business of the session was the annual election of officers, which resulted as follows:

President—C. G. Johnson.
Vice President—C. V. Shirey.
Secretary—A. T. Hunter.
Assistant Secretary—Roger Snyder
Treasurer—Wayne Norris.
Teacher—Rev. C. C. Snavely.
Assistant—C. V. Shirey.

At the conclusion of the business meeting Mrs. Snavely invited the members of the class into the parsonage, where excellent refreshments were awaiting them, to which all hands did ample justice.

Following the refreshments Mrs. C. G. Johnson gave a couple of recitations most charmingly, and a number of impromptu talks for the "good of the order" were also given by Rev. Snavely and the class members.

BATTLEGROUND OF HARD COAL SCALE MOVED TO CAPITAL

NEW YORK, April 30—Deadlocked after almost two month negotiations the sub-scale committee of the operators and miners of the anthracite coal industry will leave here today to resume their sessions in Washington with Secretary of Labor Wm. B. Wilson participating. The removal of the conference which is attempting to draw up a new wage and working agreement for the hard coal field to the office of the Secretary of Labor came at the request of Secretary Wilson himself. Representatives of the miners today said that Secretary Wilson's telegram requesting a meeting of the sub-committee in his office Saturday morning practically saved an open break between the operators and miners yesterday afternoon. Such a break would mean the cessation of work in the hard coal field as the miners have grown restive under the long delay in reaching an agreement.

SOLDIER BONUS BILL GOES TO HOUSE WAYS & MEANS COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, April 30—The Ways and Means committee today by a strictly party vote favorably reported to the House the soldier bonus bill. If it is approved by the Republican caucus today the measure will be called up in the House next Monday for action. The Democrats objected to the provisions of the bill providing for a tax on sales but were out voted by the Republicans.

WASHINGTON, April 30—The complete soldier bonus bill carrying increased taxes of $1,564,000,000 to be raised during 1921 and 1922 to provide for a cash bonus of $1.25 for each day's service in the army or navy will be submitted to the full membership of the House Ways and Means committee for approval. The Republican members have already approved it. The bonus cannot be paid until the first part of next year. The Republicans have decided that the taxes necessary to raise the money shall be effective about January 1, 1921. The taxes to be raised will provide a revenue of six billions or virtually as much as was raised during any year of the war.

MAMMOTH INDUSTRY RISES ON BARREN LAND AT BARRETT

A large force of workmen are hard at work, preparing the foundations for the new plant of the Mt. Union Refracteries company, which is being located on land purchased from the Robert Mitchell Estate at Barrett Station. The work will be pushed rapidly and it is expected that brick manufacture will be begun before the fall snow flies.

IRA PASSMORE ARRESTED

Ira Passmore, of Clearfield, against whom charges of larceny and forgery were preferred before Alderman Adam Lake, at Altoona, has been arrested in Detroit and is being held for the local authorities, according to word received at Altoona Wednesday afternoon. The man is also wanted for a violation of his parole from the state penitentiary. Passmore came to Altoona recently and secured work with Hamilton, the tailor. Some time later about $60 worth of patterns, together with Passmore himself, were missing and in a few days a forged check for $20 turned up.

BARNHOFT—HAWK

Mr. Forest C. Barnhoft and Miss Loretta Hawk, both of Curwensville, were married Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the parsonage of the First Methodist church of Altoona, by the pastor, Rev. Dr. James B. Stein. After a wedding trip they will reside in Curwensville.

Modern Grandstand To Be Erected At The Driving Park

Comprehensive Program Of Park Improvements Will Be Carried Out This Summer

STOCKHOLDERS HEAR REPORT

At a recent meeting of the stockholders of the Clearfield Park Association it was unanimously decided to have a grand stand erected and such other necessary improvements made this year as will complete this handsome recreation centre in every particular. We now have the finest park and fair grounds in Central Pennsylvania and with the contemplated improvements completed will have the most conveniently equipped grounds to be found anywhere.

The present association took the park over in 1916 as a community proposition or asset in order to prevent its being cut up and sold off in building lots.

The project represents a $50,000 investment. Of this total bonds to the extent of about $34,000 have been sold. These bonds have since paid their holders 4 per cent. interest, this interest being paid each of the past four years out of the earnings of the park.

It will be necessary to dispose of the remaining $16,000 in bonds in order to properly improve the park and it is up to Clearfield people to get busy and make this investment. The park is an invaluable asset to the town and will continue to grow in value with the years. Our hard-headed business men with loyalty to the town at heart have already saved it for our people and have given much of their time and labor to carry it on successfully and it is up to those who have not yet invested in this community enterprise to get busy and take their share of the bonds yet to be sold. It is a safe investment in dollars and cents and one hundred per cent. above par as a matter of public duty and town or community pride.

For the information of Clearfield people generally we publish herewith the action of the stockholders at their recent meeting together with the annual report of President A. E. Leitzinger:

April 15, 1920

To the Stockholders of the Clearfield Park Association:

At a stockholders meeting of the Clearfield Park Association held February 2nd, 1920, the following stockholders were elected to serve as Directors for the ensuing year: John Dimeling, Charles T. Kurtz, A. E Leitzinger, H. B. Powell and E. E. Orcutt.

The following resolutions were offered and adopted:

That the stockholders of the Association do authorize and empower its directors and officers to, in any business way they may see fit, cause to be erected at the Park adequate grandstand facilities. Also an additional building for rest room and toilet conveniences. Also that additional seats be placed throughout the grounds. Also to lease to persons that may be satisfactory the privilege of having a pond for skating and swimming in season.

The following report of the President, A. E. Leitzinger was read and directed to be printed and sent to each stockholder, to wit:

When the $600.00 of unpaid subscriptions are collected the Park Association's only deficit is $2519.97, having paid in the past year for the additional plots of land, one from Ralph Kennedy, $1200.00 of about 2 acres, and another from Mrs. Samuel Kramer, $1,000.00, total $2,200.00, making a total acreage of 32 acres now owned by the Clearfield Park Association.

In order to liquidate the indebtedness of $2,519.98 and secure sufficient funds to carry out the recommended improvements of the stockholders it will be necessary to sell about $2,000.00 of the bonds now held in the treasury.

May we not have your subscription for at least one more bond and thus further assist in making this Clearfield's pleasure grounds, which, as you know, lies open and free to all. Your officers have and are serving without compensation. They know they have your hearty cooperation and would appreciate your showing it in this additional substantial way. Advise the treasurer, B. Earl Shirey, who will promptly see that your additional bonds are delivered.

Respectfully submitted,
A. E. LEITZINGER, Pres.

At a Directors meeting held after the above report was read, Charles T. Kurtz, A. E. Leitzinger, H. B. Powell and E. E. Orcutt being present the folowing officers were elected for the current year: A. E. Leitzinger, president; B. Earl Shirey, treasurer, and Bowman A. Brown, secretary.

The removal of the anthracite wage scale conference to a different environment may have the desired effect on the combatants. Under the wise counsellorship of W. B. Wilson there is every reason to hope that an agreement is soon to be had.

Our sister city of DuBois laments the fact that the census figures show only a slight gain. Clearfield, once a staid, sleepy county seat town has had a greater than the average growth and in view of our natural resources and conservative business enterprize we are destined to make even greater gains in the coming decade.

No one can predict with any degree of certainty who will be the Republican nominee for the presidency although the opinion that it cannot be any of the leading contestants, Wood, Johnson, Hoover or Harding, is freely expressed. Eliminate these four and the unknown quantity "X" equals Sproul. Our governor is a personification of Americanism, law and order, common sense, business judgment and foresight and the only well known man nationally of whom no man or faction knows no evil.

In view of Mr. Palmer's experience with the sugar refiners and jobbers we believe those fellows who are marked for assassination tomorrow might just as well hire their mourners and be done with it. Seriously we doubt the claims of the Justice Department that such a wholesale slaughter is contemplated by the so-called Reds. Of course if it is all "scare stuff" Mr. Palmer will cop off the credit for throwing the fear of the law into the anarchists.

A NECESSARY SERVICE

The wonderful response to advertising in the columns of The Progress fully justifies the claim that the advertising columns of a newspaper are appreciated just as much as the news it contains. The little classified ads are carefully scanned by a great majority of our readers while the display advertising is considered by thrifty and frugal people as the guide post to economical buying. We know that it is not necessary to urge you to carefully read the display advertising but just for the sake of interesting diversion we ask our readers to closely read the classified column. You will be surprised at the wide range of offerings there. It is truly "everybody's column."

The announcement that the Park Association proposes to continue the improvement of our beautiful little park should meet with the hearty support and approval of every citizen. The Park Association by their wise administration of its business affairs and the self-sacrificing efforts of its officials has made wonderful strides in making safe and secure, for all time, for all our people, at least one spot where we and our children may repair to seek rest and amusement. Their bond plan is safe, sound and secure and it is hoped there will be a ready response to their call for assistance.

Modernized Grammar

The teacher of a New Hampshire school was one day examining a few of her scholars in grammar. "Stand up, Johnnie, and make me a sentence containing the word 'soldiers,'" she said, pointing to a small boy. Johnnie paused as if in thought, then with a flush of triumph on his face, replied: "Last week father had five horses, but yesterday he sold them."—Boston Post.

the trials. Later, however, when Honey was shot, Johnson went into court to take the place of the wounded prosecutor, and made such a masterly presentation of the state's case against Ruef that the former official was convicted and sentenced to fourteen years in the penitentiary.

Hiram Johnson was made. Later when a company of thinking men decided to form the Lincoln-Roosevelt League to fight bossism in California, they picked Johnson to head their ticket in the gubernatorial race. Taking advantage of the state's new direct primary laws, they appealed to the people. Dropping his now large law practice, Johnson bent to the task. Neither he nor any of his backers was wealthy, but all were honest.

Winning the Republican nomination in the direct primaries, Johnson began the first real band-wagon campaign. He and his two sons composed the campaign party. One son drove an advance car from town to town, announcing that in two hours the candidate would appear in that town to ask the people's vote for governor. Then the announcer would drive to the next town. Johnson would appear as scheduled, his chauffeur being his other son.

"I am going to win this election," Johnson would say. "I am going to be governor. And my first act will be to kick the bosses out of politics and to turn the government of this state back into the hands of the people."

Johnson's "little red automobile" became known in every hamlet in the state, from the Oregon line to the Mexican border. Large crowds eagerly awaited his appearance. At first ignored by the newspapers, his unique campaign so reached the people, that editors gradually began to scent the trend of public opinion. Johnson was fast becoming the most talked-of man in the state. His race attracted attention all over the United States and near the end of his campaign his "little red automobile" became the head of a real entourage.

Johnson's majority was more than 20,000 votes. Once in the governor's chair at Sacramento, Johnson demonstrated he was greater as an executive than he even had been as an orator and a campaigner. His clean-up of politics in California began almost instantaneously. Within a few weeks after he was elected he had driven out of the state's pay every man who had had any connection whatsoever with the Southern Pacific railroad, whose machine had dominated the state for years.

Johnson was re-elected to a second term on his record as a fighting, progressive governor. His majority in 1914 was more than 200,000 or ten times the majority he had polled when he was first a candidate.

Shortly after his second inauguration he had his first encounter with the I. W. W., then just becoming a menace on the coast. A delegation of I. W. W.'s had persuaded the city government of Oakland to pay its way to Sacramento. Its leaders had expected to be able to get enough from Johnson to enable it to move on into the next state. But when the governor, who at first offered to give the men the work they asked for and which they refused, saw their attitude, he ordered them out of town by night.

"I thought at first you were a lot of good-for-nothing bums!" Johnson told the leader. "At first I offered you work. I knew you wouldn't take it. Every one of you ought to be in jail or working the roads with chain gangs. Now I am going to give you men—the whole dirty crew of you—until 6 o'clock to get out of town. Now get out of my office."

By half past four, it is related, not one I. W. W. remained in Sacramento.

In the second year of his second term he was prevailed on to run for the Senate. His majority over his democratic opponent was more than 300,000 votes.

It's easy to judge the outside of shoes. That's why some people judge them that way. That's why so many shoes don't "pan out." We're not satisfied to give you just outside appearance. We're just as particular about the inside. The interior construction of all of our footwear is in keeping with our rigid policies of efficient "quality."

Of course everybody knows that it is what you get rather than what you pay that counts. The big question then is to know what you are getting.

We have shoes at all the popular prices. You'll get full value at each price. If you feel you didn't get it bring the shoes back—we'll refund your money. This is our "square deal" policy.

NEW FREE RADIUS RATES
FAIR TO ALL CONCERNED

When electric lights were first introduced they were charged for at a flat rate per lamp, whether the lamp was high or low candle power, used one hour a day or twenty-four. Today you are charged for the amount of power consumed.

Companies found that the flat rate per lamp was not fair to the consumer. Thus the introduction of meters. By this method everyone is placed on the same square and equal footing, and pays for just what he uses.

Thus it is with our present rates. By making an equitable rate for the service rendered, this company will receive a fair and equitable income for keeping up and improving your service.

Fair enough, isn't it?

Steady Plugging

The steady plugging counts: it often wins the race.

The boy you knew 25 years ago as a steady plodder, is probably today independent and contented, because he never quit plugging.

This shows the value of persistency. If you can save only in a small way, keep it up in a good bank like The Clearfield Trust Company and you will get there.

NEPONSET ROOFS

For Buildings of All Kinds

For sloping roofs on residences, garages, bungalows, or public buildings, Neponset Twin Shingles make as handsome and durable a roof as it is possible to find anywhere — and they are most economical.

Neponset Twin Shingles are impregnated with a phalt and heavily surfaced with crushed slate. No wonder they resist time and wear. Their natural slate-red and slate-green colors are restful and beautiful.

They will not catch fire from falling sparks. Because they are two shingles in one and self-spacing, they require less labor and less nails to lay.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

On Thursday forenoon a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bloom, at their home on South Side.

The physical condition of W. B. Fox, residing on Susquehanna avenue, who has been ill for some time, is such that death is expected to occur at most any time.

Curwensville lodge No. 486, Knights of Pythias, held a most interesting and instructive meeting last evening. After the regular business of the lodge was finished, five candidates were admitted and instructed in the third degree, or in lodge parlance the degree of Knighthood, the highest plane that can be reached in a local lodge.

Gus Wolf, Jr., left yesterday for Pottsville, Pa., where he expects to visit with relatives for a week.

Bruce Norris, son of John Norris, was agreeably surprised Wednesday evening by a number of his friends, who gathered to celebrate and congratulate him on reaching his 17th milestone in life. The lad, not to be outdone, entertained the jolly crowd royally. They visited the movies, ate sumptuously of elegant refreshments and danced.

A party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Milligan, at the Hugh Irwin farm house, on Wednesday evening, in honor of their daughter, Miss May. The guests spent a most enjoyable evening, and before returning for their respective homes were treated to seasonable refreshments, to which all did ample justice.

Robert Davidson, who has been ill for the past nine weeks with pneumonia, is reported as having passed the danger line, and now was on the road to full recovery. He had a close call.

Mrs. Orvis Bloom, residing on Bloomington avenue, is quite ill from an attack of pneumonia.

Constable Eli Koob, who has been confined to his home by an attack of rheumatism, is able to be about again and resume the driving business.

Miss Helen Bloom will hold a ten weeks' term of summer school in the Patton building. Term begins May 3rd. Tuition for 1st, 2nd and 3rd year pupils, 50 cents per week, and $1.00 per week for 4th, 5th and 6th grade pupils. A29-2t ch

START TOMORROW AND KEEP IT UP EVERY MORNING

Get into the habit of drinking a glass of hot water before breakfast.

Millions of folks bathe internally now instead of loading their system with drugs. "What's an inside bath?" you say. Well, it is guaranteed to perform miracles, according to hot water enthusiasts.

There are vast numbers of men and women who, immediately upon arising in the morning, drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and intestines of the previous day's waste, sour bile and indigestible material left over in the body, which, if not eliminated every day, become food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels, the quick result being poisons and toxins, which are then absorbed into the blood causing headache, bilious attacks, foul breath, bad taste, colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sorts of ailments.

People who feel good one day and badly the next, but who simply can not get feeling right, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a real crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

A SURE CURE

"When a widower begins to wonder whether she will think he is too old for her he ceases to complain about his lumbago."

But the man who gets up in the morning all out of sorts—with lame back, stiff limbs, a dull "achy" head, better look out for himself—maybe his kidneys are to blame.

Swollen hands, ankles, feet are due to a dropsical condition, often caused by disordered kidneys. Naturally when the kidneys are deranged the blood is filled with poisonous waste matter, which settles in the feet, ankles and wrists; or under the eyes in bag-like formations.

As a remedy for those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation caused by uric acid—as scalding urine, backache and frequent urination, as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, gout, it is simply wonderful how quickly An-u-ric acts; the pains and stiffness rapidly disappear, for Anuric (anti-uric-acid) is many times more potent than lithia and often eliminates uric acid as hot water melts sugar.

Anuric is a recent scientific discovery by Doctor Pierce of the Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y. Send ten cents there for a trial package of Anuric.

Her Grandma Used Sage Tea To Darken Her Hair.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after an other application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. it is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

FILM PLAY SHOWS JAPANESE KITCHEN

Viola Dana's New Vehicle "The Willow Tree" Portrays Culinary Art In Japan.

Japanese in every detail, from the bamboo fence outside to the cook stove and chop-sticks in the kitchen, is the house of the image-maker in the picturization of the "Willow Tree," starring Viola Dana, which is now being shown at the Driggs Theatre. A kitchen, living room, workshop and garden make up the setting, which was designed by M. P. Staulcup and J. Yutaka Abbe.

Miss Dana plays the daughter of the image-maker in the dramatic fantasy which June Mathis has adapted from the Cohan and Harris stage play by J. H. Benrimo and Harrison Rhodes. Edward Connelly is the image-maker. The Screen Classics, Inc., production is under Maxwell Karger's personal supervision. Henry Otto is the director.

The Japanese kitchen presents a vivid contrast to the American kitchen. There are no cupboards, tables nor chairs in the setting, which is authentic in every respect. The stove is square, and has one opening, to put in the fuel. The top is flat, and without the lids common to stoves in this country. The stove has no legs. The kitchen utensils, and even the groceries, are Japanese to the very labels, having been purchased in the Little Tokio district of Los Angeles.

One of the noticeable things about the dining room, and for that matter the whole house, is the absence of chairs and tables. At meal times the Japanese squat on the floor and eat from an eighteen-inch high table. Quaint mats are laid upon the floor and prints adorn the walls.

The front of the house is the image-maker's workshop. Images of many kinds are about the room, while in the center is the artisan's workbench. In one corner of the room is a large cabinet, and within this is a life-like image of Miss Dana. This was made by Victor Andre, sculptor of the Metro modelling shop.

Had to Be Accumulated.

Louise had some of her little friends in for luncheon the other day and among other things she had olives. She offered them to one little miss, who said she did not "like them, whereupon Louise replied in a superior fashion: "Oh, I didn't like 'em at first, but you must accumulate a taste for them."

Object of the Truest Artists.

It would appear to be the object of the truest artists to give permanence to images such as we should always desire to behold, and might behold without agitation; while the inferior branches of design are concerned with the acuter passions which depend on the turn of a narrative, or the course of an emotion.—Ruskin.

Baby Words Rule Songland.

The simpler and clearer a lyric is, the more chance it has of getting across. To carry simplicity to its limit, words of one or two syllables are almost invariably essential to a popular song hit. The writer has to think in the same terms as the great mass of the people.—American Magazine.

It Rained Cats.

At a fashionable church wedding recently everything was proceeding in quiet solemnity when suddenly there was a snarl and a jump and two cats fell on the minister's head from the balcony above. I don't think anybody remembers just how the ceremony was concluded for even the minister joined in the laugh that followed.—Exchange.

Like Game of Chess.

Husband—Always wanting money. It is like a game of chess—nothing but "check, check, check." Wife—But if you don't give it to me it will be still like a game of chess, for it will be "pawn, pawn, pawn." — Pearson's Weekly.

YOUNGMAN--BIGLER

Miss Amelia Wright Bigler, of Clearfield and Robert H. Youngman, of Pittsburgh, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Edmund A. Bigler, on Second street yesterday in the presence of about seventy-five of the relatives and close friends of the contracting parties.

The palatial Bigler home was profusely and most artistically decorated for the auspicious occasion in snapdragons, blue larkspur and lilacs and presented an especially pleasing appearance. The ceremony was performed in the parlor, an altar being erected in the east corner of the room. The altar was tastefully decorated with American Beauty roses, palms and native arbutus.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother A. Wright Bigler and was most becomingly gowned in a dark blue traveling suit with corsage of orchids and lillies of the valley. The bride's niece, little Miss Jane Murray, was flower girl, while Edmund A. Bigler, little nephew of the bride, acted as ring bearer.

The ceremony was performed at 12 o'clock, Rev. Dr. E. C. Reeve of the First Presbyterian church employing the beautiful and impressive ring service of that church.

Following the ceremony an elegant wedding dinner was served and at 2 o'clock the wedding party departed by automobile for Tyrone where they took a main line train for an extended wedding tour.

The groom is the son of the late Prof. B. C. Youngman, and a former Clearfield boy. He has been connected with the Harbinson-Walker Refractories company at Pittsburgh for a number of years and is rated as one of the smoky city's most successful young business men. His bride is the youngest daughter of the late Edmund A. and Mrs. Amelia Wright Bigler. She was one of Clearfield's best known, most accomplished and highly respected young ladies, numbering as her friends and well wishers all Clearfield people with the pleasure of her acquaintance. She was closely identified with the social activities of her set and took an active interest in church and welfare work. She was especially interested in Red Cross war work and deserves all the pleasures and joys of the happiest of wedded lives.

Mr. and Mrs. Youngman will reside in Pittsburgh.

The out-of-town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Floesch, Rochester, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Croft, of Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. James B. Graham, Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. John Provost, Pittsburgh; Mrs. John Mahaffey, Pittsburgh; Mrs. George Schultz, Philadelphia; Mrs. Elizabeth Godcharles, Milton; Mr. and Mrs. William B. Godcharles and daughter Miss Helen, Milton; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Good, Patton, and Miss Gertrude Rickenbaugh, Lewistown.

If Backachy Or Kidneys Bother

Eat less meat and take a glass of Salts to flush out Kidneys—Drink plenty water.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; make sa delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidneys trouble while it is only trouble.

PALMER DECLARES MAY DAY MURDER PLANS OF REDS WILL NOT SUCCEED

ETERNAL VIGILANCE OF FEDERAL AND POLICE OFFICERS EXPECTED TO FRUSTRATE RADICAL PLOTTINGS

MORE RED RAIDS MAY BE STAGED

WASHINGTON, April 30—Secret service agents of the Department of Justice today were in conference with city and state officials in all big cities making plans to cope with the May Day demonstration which the Reds are planning for tomorrow. Palmer who late yesterday announced the Reds had marked many public officials for assassination, was personally directing the government officials in their efforts to break up the alleged plots. The Reds, according to the department reports, will stir up strikes, riots and confusion. It will not succeed, Palmer predicted. Palmer for months has been receiving threatening letters daily.

WEDS CHARMING BIGLER GIRL

Miss Verva Knepp, of Bigler, and Mr. Harry I. Sieber, of Lancaster, Pa., were married at high noon yesterday, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Knepp, of Bigler. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ezra Sieber, of Lancaster, assisted by Rev. McCoy, pastor of the U. B. church at Bigler.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and was attired in a blue travelling suit, with hat to match, and carried a boquet of roses and sweet peas.

The bridesmaid was Miss Esther Knepp, of Clearfield, niece of the bride, and the groom was attended by Mr. Bernard S. Cowder, also of Clearfield.

The ceremony was witnessed by none but the close friends and immediate relatives of the contracting parties. A sumptous wedding dinner was served following the ceremony.

The groom has been located in Clearfield during the past year, having been in charge of the optical department of Howe's Jewelry Store. He has made a host of warm friends during his residence here. The out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mrs. Autthaus, Miss Hearst, Rev. and Mrs. Ezra Sieber, and Mrs. Fullpocket, all of Lancaster, Pa.

SOME RAIN! SOME SWEARING!

According to local weather observer H. P. Bridge, Sr., thus far during April there has been a total rainfall of six inches, which demonstrates that while we have had rain pretty generally all month, the volume was not really as great as one would think.

Our devil is authority for the statement that this self-same rainfall has been conducive to profanity sufficient to cover the earth with a salve at least two inches greater in depth than the measurments of the weather observer.

BOLD ROBBERS ENTER BRICKYARD ROUDOIR AND ROB "GEE" HULL

There was some excitement in police circles last night about 10 o'clock when "Gee" Hull appeared at "central station" and infomed the force that a holdup man had entered his boudoir at the Clearfield Brick Company's plant and by force of arms and with malice aforethought, had divested the said "Gee" of the sum of $3.75, which "Gee" alleged he had safely anchored or tucked away in the deepest corner of his left-hand trousers pocket—the said trousers being upon his said person when the said abstraction or removal occurred therefrom.

The force commandeered Moe Robinson and his racer and were soon at the scene of the alleged holdup, but after searching the premises and inspecting the said boudoir from a safe distance, arrived at the conclusion there was a mistake somewhere.

"Gee" arrived later and when he described the robber, was advised by the officers to search the fellow out and if he had succeeded in finding $3.75 in the aforesaid jeans, to divide with him fifty-fifty, and they would both be $1.87½ ahead of the game.

Newspapermen around the capitol at Washington will tell you there is not a more serious-minded man in politics than Hiram Warren Johnson. Reporters in California are likely to add that Johnson has been in earnest from the day the then obscure lawyer opened his office for general practice in Sacramento.

The Johnson two-fisted attitude has always made those who came in contact with him either supporters or opponents. A man of the fighting type, he is usually compared with Roosevelt. Yet those who expect him to relate amusing anecdotes from his life are keenly disappointed. Although he has a keen sense of humor, he refrains from exhibiting the lighter side of life.

When he tells a joke only those who know him best and can catch the twinkle in his eye can tell he is not in earnest.

Johnson is always at work. That is, when he is not sitting behind third-base watching a ball game. Washington knows Johnson as the Senate's wildest fan. As soon as he leaves his office in the Senate Office Building, on warm days he usually heads for the Washington team's park, where, with coat and hat in his lap, he follows every play almost religiously.

In frame he is a giant. His appearance is that of a short, heavy man with a large, fwell-shaped head; a clear-cut jaw; clear, blue eyes, and a straight mouth. When talking he emphasizes his remarks by gestures of his two big, clinched fists.

Johnson, who has been conducting his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination by appealing direct to the people in preferential primary states, is 53 years old. He was born in Sacramento, Cal., where later he and a brother opened a law office. His youth was spent in the California capital. He attended the University of California but was never graduated. In 1886 he was married to Miss Minnie L. McNeal of Sacramento.

Admitted to the bar in 1887, Johnson was known as a fair lawyer, but not one whose business occupied all his time. Even after he moved to San Francisco in 1902, he still was an obscure attorney. It took the famous "boodling" cases—in which Abe Ruef and other city officials were charged with graft resulting from the rebuilding of San Francisco following the earthquake and fire of 1906—to bring Johnson to public notice.

Associated with Francis J. Heney and William J. Burns in prosecuting Ruef, he at first took a minor part in

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS ELECTS OFFICERS

The Men's Bible Class of the West Side Methodist Sunday School held an interesting meeting in the West Side church last evening. The principal business of the session was the annual election of officers, which resulted as follows:

President—C. G. Johnson.
Vice President—C. V. Shirey.
Secretary—A. T. Hunter.
Assistant Secretary—Roger Snyder
Treasurer—Wayne Norris.
Teacher—Rev. C. C. Snavely.
Assistant—C. V. Shirey.

At the conclusion of the business meeting Mrs. Snavely invited the members of the class into the parsonage, where excellent refreshments were awaiting them, to which all hands did ample justice.

Following the refreshments Mrs. C. G. Johnson gave a couple of recitations most charmingly, and a number of impromptu talks for the "good of the order" were also given by Rev. Snavely and the class members.

BATTLEGROUND OF HARD COAL SCALE MOVED TO CAPITAL

NEW YORK, April 30—Deadlocked after almost two month negotiations the sub-scale committee of the operators and miners of the anthracite coal industry will leave here today to resume their sessions in Washington with Secretary of Labor Wm. B. Wilson participating. The removal of the conference which is attempting to draw up a new wage and working agreement for the hard coal field to the office of the Secretary of Labor came at the request of Secretary Wilson himself. Representatives of the miners today said that Secretary Wilson's telegram requesting a meeting of the sub-committee in his office Saturday morning practically saved an open break between the operators and miners yesterday afternoon. Such a break would mean the cessation of work in the hard coal field as the miners have grown restive under the long delay in reaching an agreement.

SOLDIER BONUS BILL GOES TO HOUSE WAYS & MEANS COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, April 30—The Ways and Means committee today by a strictly party vote favorably reported to the House the soldier bonus bill. If it is approved by the Republican caucus today the measure will be called up in the House next Monday for action. The Democrats objected to the provisions of the bill providing for a tax on sales but were out voted by the Republicans.

WASHINGTON, April 30—The complete soldier bonus bill carrying increased taxes of $1,564,000,000 to be raised during 1921 and 1922 to provide for a cash bonus of $1.25 for each day's service in the army or navy will be submitted to the full membership of the House Ways and Means committee for approval. The Republican members have already approved it. The bonus cannot be paid until the first part of next year. The Republicans have decided that the taxes necessary to raise the money shall be effective about January 1, 1921. The taxes to be raised will provide a revenue of six billions or virtually as much as was raised during any year of the war.

MAMMOTH INDUSTRY RISES ON BARREN LAND AT BARRETT

A large force of workmen are hard at work, preparing the foundations for the new plant of the Mt. Union Refractories company, which is being located on land purchased from the Robert Mitchell Estate at Barrett Station. The work will be pushed rapidly and it is expected that brick manufacture will be begun before the fall snow flies.

IRA PASSMORE ARRESTED

Ira Passmore, of Clearfield, against whom charges of larceny and forgery were preferred before Alderman Adam Lake, at Altoona, has been arrested in Detroit and is being held for the local authorities, according to word received at Altoona Wednesday afternoon. The man is also wanted for a violation of his parole from the state penitentiary. Passmore came to Altoona recently and secured work with Hamilton, the tailor. Some time later about $60 worth of patterns, together with Passmore himself, were missing and in a few days a forged check for $20 turned up.

BARNHOFT—HAWK

Mr. Forest C. Barnhoft and Miss Loretta Hawk, both of Curwensville, were married Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the parsonage of the First Methodist church of Altoona, by the pastor, Rev. Dr. James B. Stein. After a wedding trip they will reside in Curwensville.

Modern Grandstand To Be Erected At The Driving Park

Comprehensive Program Of Park Improvements Will Be Carried Out This Summer

STOCKHOLDERS HEAR REPORT

At a recent meeting of the stockholders of the Clearfield Park Association it was unanimously decided to have a grand stand erected and such other necessary improvements made this year as will complete this handsome recreation centre in every particular. We now have the finest park and fair grounds in Central Pennsylvania and with the contemplated improvements completed will have the most conveniently equipped grounds to be found anywhere.

The present association took the park over in 1916 as a community proposition or asset in order to prevent its being cut up and sold off in building lots.

The project represents a $50,000 investment. Of this total bonds to the extent of about $34,000 have been sold. These bonds have since paid their holders 4 per cent. interest, this interest being paid each of the past four years out of the earnings of the park.

It will be necessary to dispose of the remaining $16,000 in bonds in order to properly improve the park and it is up to Clearfield people to get busy and make this investment. The park is an invaluable asset to the town and will continue to grow in value with the years. Our hard-headed business men with loyalty to the town at heart have already saved it for our people and have given much of their time and labor to carry it on successfully and it is up to those who have not yet invested in this community enterprise to get busy and take their share of the bonds yet to be sold. It is a safe investment in dollars and cents and one hundred per cent. above par as a matter of public duty and town or community pride.

For the information of Clearfield people generally we publish herewith the action of the stockholders at their recent meeting together with the annual report of President A. E. Leitzinger:

April 15, 1920

To the Stockholders of the Clearfield Park Association:

At a stockholders meeting of the Clearfield Park Association held February 2nd, 1920, the following stockholders were elected to serve as Directors for the ensuing year: John Dimeling, Charles T. Kurtz, A. E Leitzinger, H. B. Powell and E. E. Orcutt.

The following resolutions were offered and adopted:

That the stockholders of the Association do authorize and empower its directors and officers to, in any business way they may see fit, cause to be erected at the Park adequate grandstand facilities. Also an additional building for rest room and toilet conveniences. Also that additional seats be placed throughout the grounds. Also to lease to persons that may be satisfactory the privilege of having a pond for skating and swimming in season.

The following report of the President, A. E. Leitzinger was read and directed to be printed and sent to each stockholder, to wit:

Total authorized bonds of

Unpaid subscriptions	600.00 2,865.54
Excess of Current liabilities over current assets	$2,519.97

When the $600.00 of unpaid subscriptions are collected the Park Association's only deficit is $2519.97, having paid in the past year for the additional plots of land, one from Ralph Kennedy, $1200.00 of about 2 acres, and another from Mrs. Samuel Kramer, $1,000.00, total $2,200.00, making a total acreage of 32 acres now owned by the Clearfield Park Association.

In order to liquidate the indebtedness of $2,519.98 and secure sufficient funds to carry out the recommended improvements of the stockholders it will be necessary to sell about $2,000.00 of the bonds now held in the treasury.

May we not have your subscription for at least one more bond and thus further assist in making this Clearfield's pleasure grounds, which, as you know, lies open and free to all. Your officers have and are serving without compensation. They know they have your hearty cooperation and would appreciate your showing it in this additional substantial way. Advise the treasurer, B. Earl Shirey, who will promptly see that your additional bonds are delivered.

Respectfully submitted,
A. E. LEITZINGER, Pres.

At a Directors meeting held after the above report was read, Charles T. Kurtz, A. E. Leitzinger, H. B. Powell and E. E. Orcutt being present the folowing officers were elected for the current year: A. E. Leitzinger, president; B. Earl Shirey, treasurer, and Bowman A. Brown, secretary.

The removal of the anthracite wage scale conference to a different environment may have the desired effect on the combatants. Under the wise counsellorship of W. B. Wilson there is every reason to hope that an agreement is soon to be had.

Our sister city of DuBois laments the fact that the census figures show only a slight gain. Clearfield, once a staid, sleepy county seat town has had a greater than the average growth and in view of our natural resources and conservative business enterprize we are destined to make even greater gains in the coming decade.

No one can predict with any degree of certainty who will be the Republican nominee for the presidency although the opinion that it cannot be any of the leading contestants, Wood, Johnson, Hoover or Harding, is freely expressed. Eliminate these four and the unknown quantity "X" equals Sproul. Our governor is a personification of Americanism, law and order, common sense, business judgment and foresight and the only well known man nationally of whom no man or faction knows no evil.

In view of Mr. Palmer's experience with the sugar refiners and jobbers we believe those fellows who are marked for assassination tomorrow might just as well hire their mourners and be done with it. Seriously we doubt the claims of the Justice Department that such a wholesale slaughter is contemplated by the so-called Reds. Of course if it is all "scare stuff" Mr. Palmer will cop off the credit for throwing the fear of the law into the anarchists.

A NECESSARY SERVICE

The wonderful response to advertising in the columns of The Progress fully justifies the claim that the advertising columns of a newspaper are appreciated just as much as the news it contains. The little classified ads are carefully scanned by a great majority of our readers while the display advertising is considered by thrifty and frugal people as the guide post to economical buying. We know that it is not necessary to urge you to carefully read the display advertising but just for the sake of interesting diversion we ask our readers to closely read the classified column. You will be surprised at the wide range of offerings there. It is truly "everybody's column."

The announcement that the Park Association proposes to continue the improvement of our beautiful little park should meet with the hearty support and approval of every citizen. The Park Association by their wise administration of its business affairs and the self-sacrificing efforts of its officials has made wonderful strides in making safe and secure, for all time, for all our people, at least one spot where we and our children may repair to seek rest and amusement. Their bond plan is safe, sound and secure and it is hoped there will be a ready response to their call for assistance.

Modernized Grammar

The teacher of a New Hampshire school was one day examining a few of her scholars in grammar. "Stand up, Johnnie, and make me a sentence containing the word 'soldiers,'" she said, pointing to a small boy. Johnnie paused as if in thought, then with a flash of triumph on his face, replied: "Last week father had five horses, but yesterday he sold them."—Boston Post.

the trials. Later, however, when Honey was shot, Johnson went into court to take the place of the wounded prosecutor, and made such a masterly presentation of the state's case against Ruef that the former official was convicted and sentenced to fourteen years in the penitentiary.

Hiram Johnson was made. Later when a company of thinking men decided to form the Lincoln-Roosevelt League to fight bossism in California, they picked Johnson to head their ticket in the gubernatorial race. Taking advantage of the state's new direct primary laws, they appealed to the people. Dropping his now large law practice, Johnson bent to the task. Neither he nor any of his backers was wealthy, but all were honest.

Winning the Republican nomination in the direct primaries, Johnson began the first real band-wagon campaign. He and his two sons composed the campaign party. One son drove an advance car from town to town, announcing that in two hours the candidate would appear in that town to ask the people's vote for governor. Then the announcer would drive to the next town. Johnson would appear as scheduled, his chauffeur being his other son.

"I am going to win this election," Johnson would say. "I am going to be governor. And my first act will be to kick the bosses out of politics and to turn the government of this state back into the hands of the people."

Johnson's "little red automobile" became known in every hamlet in the state, from the Oregon line to the Mexican border. Large crowds eagerly awaited his appearance. At first ignored by the newspapers, his unique campaign so reached the people, that editors gradually began to scent the trend of public opinion. Johnson was fast becoming the most talked-of man in the state. His race attracted attention all over the United States and near the end of his campaign his "little red automobile" became the head of a real entourage.

Johnson's majority was more than 20,000 votes. Once in the governor's chair at Sacramento, Johnson demonstrated he was greater as an executive than he even had been as an orator and a campaigner. His clean-up of politics in California began almost instantaneously. Within a few weeks after he was elected he had driven out of the state's pay every man who had had any connection whatsoever with the Southern Pacific railroad, whose machine had dominated the state for years.

Johnson was re-elected to a second term on his record as a fighting, progressive governor. His majority in 1914 was more than 200,000 or ten times the majority he had polled when he was first a candidate.

Shortly after his second inauguration he had his first encounter with the I. W. W., then just becoming a menace on the coast. A delegation of I. W. W.'s had persuaded the city government of Oakland to pay its way to Sacramento. Its leaders had expected to be able to get enough from Johnson to enable it to move on into the next state. But when the governor, who at first offered to give the men the work they asked for and which they refused, saw their attitude, he ordered them out of town by night.

"I thought at first you were a lot of good-for-nothing bums!" Johnson told the leader. "At first I offered you work. I knew you wouldn't take it. Every one of you ought to be in jail or working the roads with chain gangs. Now I am going to give you men—the whole dirty crew of you—until 6 o'clock to get out of town. Now get out of my office."

By half past four, it is related, not one I. W. W. remained in Sacramento.

In the second year of his second term he was prevailed on to run for the Senate. His majority over his democratic opponent was more than 300,000 votes.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

On Thursday forenoon a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bloom, at their home on South Side.

The physical condition of W. B. Fox, residing on Susquehanna avenue, who has been ill for some time, is such that death is expected to occur at most any time.

Curwensville lodge No. 486, Knights of Pythias, held a most interesting and instructive meeting last evening. After the regular business of the lodge was finished, five candidates were admitted and instructed in the third degree, or in lodge parlance the degree of Knighthood, the highest plane that can be reached in a local lodge.

Gus Wolf, Jr., left yesterday for Pottsville, Pa., where he expects to visit with relatives for a week.

Bruce Norris, son of John Norris, was agreeably surprised Wednesday evening by a number of his friends, who gathered to celebrate and congratulate him on reaching his 17th milestone in life. The lad, not to be outdone, entertained the jolly crowd royally. They visited the movies, ate sumptuously of elegant refreshments and danced.

A party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Milligan, at the Hugh Irwin farm house, on Wednesday evening, in honor of their daughter, Miss May. The guests spent a most enjoyable evening, and before returning for their respective homes were treated to seasonable refreshments, to which all did ample justice.

Robert Davidson, who has been ill for the past nine weeks with pneumonia, is reported as having passed the danger line, and now was on the road to full recovery. He had a close call.

Mrs. Orvis Bloom, residing on Bloomington avenue, is quite ill from an attack of pneumonia.

Constable Eli Koob, who has been confined to his home by an attack of rheumatism, is able to be about again and resume the driving business.

Miss Helen Bloom will hold a ten weeks' term of summer school in the Patton building. Term begins May 3rd. Tuition for 1st, 2nd and 3rd year pupils, 50 cents per week, and $1.00 per week for 4th, 5th and 6th grade pupils. A29-2t ch

START TOMORROW AND KEEP IT UP EVERY MORNING

Get into the habit of drinking a glass of hot water before breakfast.

Millions of folks bathe internally now instead of loading their system with drugs. "What's an inside bath?" you say. Well, it is guaranteed to perform miracles, according to hot water enthusiasts.

There are vast numbers of men and women who, immediately upon arising in the morning, drink a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This is a very excellent health measure. It is intended to flush the stomach, liver, kidneys and intestines of the previous day's waste, sour bile and indigestible material left over in the body, which, if not eliminated every day, become food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels, the quick result being poisons and toxins, which are then absorbed into the blood causing headache, bilious attacks, foul breath, bad taste, colds, stomach trouble, kidney misery, sleeplessness, impure blood and all sorts of ailments.

People who feel good one day and badly the next, but who simply can not get feeling right, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a real crank on the subject of internal sanitation.

Fraternal Feeling Up.

A circle of [illegible] is kept permanent [illegible] meeting talks and remarks directed to compliments. Having discovered himself in an unusual degree during a gathering of clergy at the bishop's palace, he was taken to task for his failings by a senior curate who was one of his companions on the way home. A SURE CURE

"When a widower begins to wonder whether she will think he is too old for her he ceases to complain about his lumbago."

But the man who gets up in the morning all out of sorts—with lame back, stiff limbs, a dull "achy" head, better look out for himself—maybe his kidneys are to blame.

Swollen hands, ankles, feet are due to a dropsical condition, often caused by disordered kidneys. Naturally when the kidneys are deranged the blood is filled with poisonous waste matter, which settles in the feet, ankles and wrists; or under the eyes in bag-like formations.

As a remedy for those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation caused by uric acid—as scalding urine, backache and frequent urination, as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, gout, it is simply wonderful how quickly An-u-ric acts; the pains and stiffness rapidly disappear, for Anuric (anti-uric-acid) is many times more potent than lithia and often eliminates uric acid as hot water melts sugar.

Anuric is a recent scientific discovery by Doctor Pierce of the Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y. Send ten cents there for a trial package of Anuric.

Her Grandma Used Sage Tea To Darken Her Hair.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after an other application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. it is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

FILM PLAY SHOWS JAPANESE KITCHEN

Viola Dana's New Vehicle "The Willow Tree" Portrays Culinary Art In Japan.

Japanese in every detail, from the bamboo fence outside to the cook stove and chop-sticks in the kitchen, is the house of the image-maker in the picturization of the "Willow Tree," starring Viola Dana, which is now being shown at the Driggs Theatre. A kitchen, living room, workshop and garden make up the setting, which was designed by M. P. Staulcup and J. Yutaka Abbe.

Miss Dana plays the daughter of the image-maker in the dramatic fantasy which June Mathis has adapted from the Cohan and Harris stage play by J. H. Benrimo and Harrison Rhodes. Edward Connelly is the image-maker. The Screen Classics, Inc., production is under Maxwell Karger's personal supervision. Henry Otto is the director.

The Japanese kitchen presents a vivid contrast to the American kitchen. There are no cupboards, tables nor chairs in the setting, which is authentic in every respect. The stove is square, and has one opening, to put in the fuel. The top is flat, and without the lids common to stoves in this country. The stove has no legs. The kitchen utensils, and even the groceries, are Japanese to the very labels, having been purchased in the Little Tokio district of Los Angeles.

One of the noticeable things about the dining room, and for that matter the whole house, is the absence of chairs and tables. At meal times the Japanese squat on the floor and eat from an eighteen-inch high table. Quaint mats are laid upon the floor and prints adorn the walls.

The front of the house is the image-maker's workshop. Images of many kinds are about the room, while in the center is the artisan's workbench. In one corner of the room is a large cabinet, and within this is a life-like image of Miss Dana. This was made by Victor Andre, sculptor of the Metro modelling shop.

Had to Be Accumulated.

Louise had some of her little friends in for luncheon the other day and among other things she had olives. She offered them to one little miss, who said she did not "like them, whereupon Louise replied in a superior fashion: "Oh, I didn't like 'em at first, but you must accumulate a taste for them."

Object of the Truest Artists.

It would appear to be the object of the truest artists to give permanence to images such as we should always desire to behold, and might behold without agitation; while the inferior branches of design are concerned with the acuter passions which depend on the turn of a narrative, or the course of an emotion.—Ruskin.

Baby Words Rule Songland.

The simpler and clearer a lyric is, the more chance it has of getting across. To carry simplicity to its limit, words of one or two syllables are almost invariably essential to a popular song hit. The writer has to think in the same terms as the great mass of the people.—American Magazine.

It Rained Cats.

At a fashionable church wedding recently everything was proceeding in quiet solemnity when suddenly there was a snarl and a jump and two cats fell on the minister's head from the balcony above. I don't think anybody remembers just how the ceremony was concluded for even the minister joined in the laugh that followed.—Exchange.

Like Game of Chess.

Husband—Always wanting money. It is like a game of chess—nothing but "check, check, check." Wife—But if you don't give it to me it will be still like a game of chess, for it will be "pawn, pawn, pawn." — Pearson's Weekly.

YOUNGMAN--BIGLER

Miss Amelia Wright Bigler, of Clearfield and Robert H. Youngman, of Pittsburgh, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Edmund A. Bigler, on Second street yesterday in the presence of about seventy-five of the relatives and close friends of the contracting parties.

The palatial Bigler home was profusely and most artistically decorated for the auspicious occasion in snapdragons, blue larkspur and lilacs and presented an especially pleasing appearance. The ceremony was performed in the parlor, an altar being erected in the east corner of the room. The altar was tastefully decorated with American Beauty roses, palms and native arbutus.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother A. Wright Bigler and was most becomingly gowned in a dark blue traveling suit with corsage of orchids and lillies of the valley. The bride's niece, little Miss Jane Murray, was flower girl, while Edmund A. Bigler, little nephew of the bride, acted as ring bearer.

The ceremony was performed at 12 o'clock, Rev. Dr. E. C. Reeve of the First Presbyterian church employing the beautiful and impressive ring service of that church.

Following the ceremony an elegant wedding dinner was served and at 2 o'clock the wedding party departed by automobile for Tyrone where they took a main line train for an extended wedding tour.

The groom is the son of the late Prof. B. C. Youngman, and a former Clearfield boy. He has been connected with the Harbinson-Walker Refractories company at Pittsburgh for a number of years and is rated as one of the smoky city's most successful young business men. His bride is the youngest daughter of the late Edmund A. and Mrs. Amelia Wright Bigler. She was one of Clearfield's best known, most accomplished and highly respected young ladies, numbering as her friends and well wishers all Clearfield people with the pleasure of her acquaintance. She was closely identified with the social activities of her set and took an active interest in church and welfare work. She was especially interested in Red Cross war work and deserves all the pleasures and joys of the happiest of wedded lives.

Mr. and Mrs. Youngman will reside in Pittsburgh.

The out-of-town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Floesch, Rochester, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Croft, of Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. James B. Graham, Williamsport; Mr. and Mrs. John Provost, Pittsburgh; Mrs. John Mahaffey, Pittsburgh; Mrs. George Schultz, Philadelphia; Mrs. Elizabeth Godcharles, Milton; Mr. and Mrs. William B. Godcharles and daughter Miss Helen, Milton; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Good, Patton, and Miss Gertrude Rickenbaugh, Lewistown.

If Backachy Or Kidneys Bother

Eat less meat and take a glass of Salts to flush out Kidneys—Drink plenty water.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; make sa delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidneys trouble while it is only trouble.

Too Late.

My little Milton has a little playmate named Arthur, living in the next block, but I did not know that they had recently quarreled. One day I said to Milton: "You'd better go over and see your friend Arthur; I hear he's sick." To which he answered, rather sullenly: "Well, he ain't my friend now. He should have got sick sooner!"—Chicago Tribune.

Not Easy to Practice Thrift.

Thrift begins with trifles and leads toward contentment. The difficulty is to begin saving just a little when you have plenty. It is so much easier to spend the whole surplus from week to week and from month to month while things are coming easy.
